

BANK OFFICIALS ARRESTED, Charged With Presenting a False State- ment of Its Condition.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Dec. 28.—The directors and the managers of the Commercial bank were arrested Thursday on warrants issued by Judge Conroy. They are charged with presenting a false statement of the bank's condition at the annual meeting by including among the assets of the bank securities which were hypothecated to the London and Westminster bank in order to offset overdrafts on it.

The warrants were issued on the initiative of Dr. Skelton of the board of trustees, the board authorizing them. The directors are: A. F. Goodridge, ex-premier of Newfoundland; James Goodfellow, chairman of the board of directors; F. J. Duder, George A. Hutchings and James Potts, an ex-cabinet minister.

The latter, however, is not yet in custody, as he is in Nova Scotia. The manager arrested is named Henry Cook. Bail will be accepted for all the prisoners. No allegations are made of personal misappropriation, and some of the leading lawyers of this city say that the arrests are a mere technicality.

THEY SCOUT THIRTEEN.

Boston Committee of Christian Endeavorers Already at Work.

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—Now that it has been finally decided to hold the next international convention of the Christian Endeavor society in this city owing to the fact that the railroads have persisted in refusing to grant moderate rates to San Francisco, the place named by the last convention, the committees appointed to make the preliminary arrangements have gone actively to work.

The general arrangements have been placed in the hands of an executive committee of the alleged unlucky number of 13, and of which Samuel B. Capin, a wealthy and prominent citizen, is chairman. To this committee the subcommittees will make weekly reports until next spring, when daily meetings will be in order. The convention assemblies in July, and enthusiastic members of the committee of 13 already put it that 75,000 Christian Endeavorers will be in attendance.

Miller, who will be the executioner, says that the reports that the Utes are likely to cause trouble on account of the old chief's hanging, are unfounded. He says Two Sticks is very unpopular with his tribe.

The Japanese have also dispersed the Tonghaks, who defeated the Korean garrison at Chullado.

He Writes From Washington City That He is Not a Candidate For Any Office.

Those of Mr. Carlisle's friends who hoped he would be a candidate for Governor of Kentucky or United States Senator, are doomed to disappointment. The following has been received by Senator Hays:

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 21, 1894.
Hon. Thomas H. Hays, Frankfort, Ky.—My Dear Sir: Your favor of the 7th inst., suggesting that you be permitted to present me as a candidate for the United States Senate from the State of Kentucky, was duly received. The friendly feeling which has prompted you to make this suggestion is fully appreciated, but I cannot consent to the use of my name as a candidate. If possible, I propose to take some part in the campaign in my State next year in order to assist my political friends in remitting the Democratic party, but it will be with the distinct understanding that I am not an aspirant for any office. Very truly yours, J. G. CARLISLE.
